Note: If, by prior agreement, this work is being submitted for assessment in more than one course, you must list all those other course IDs in the above boxes.

I declare that:

- this assessment item is my own work, except where acknowledged, and has not been submitted for academic credit elsewhere;
- all reasonable care has been taken to ensure that no other person has been able to copy this work either in paper or electronic form.

I acknowledge that the assessor of this item may, for the purpose of assessing this item:

- reproduce this assessment item and provide a copy to another member of the University; and/or,
- communicate a copy of this assessment item to a plagiarism checking service (which may then retain a copy of the assessment item on its database for the purpose of future plagiarism checking).

I certify that I have read and understood the University rules in respect of Student Academic Misconduct.

Plagiarism is the use another's work pretending that it is your own. More specifically, in an educational context, plagiarism is endeavouring to obtain academic credit in a course of study for work that is either not individually prepared by you or prepared by you, but for some other purpose, whether paid or unpaid.

The following web sites expand more fully on the nature and consequences of plagiarism and must be read prior to submitting this declaration.
